Dengue Insurance Terms and Conditions

DENGUE INSURANCE

Dengue Insurance provides lump sum maximum amount depending on your plan purchased in case the insured is diagnosed of dengue, provided dengue diagnosis is confirmed and certified by the insured's attending physician, supported by relevant diagnostic tests, and validated by Prudential Guarantee's authorized medical consultant. Confinement or hospitalization is not a requirement.

The Accidental Death and Disability Benefit provides lump sum benefit in the amount depending on your plan purchased for death or disability due to accident.

Waiting period: 7 days from effective date is in effect. This means that no signs nor symptoms of dengue should have been observed and that the first medical consultation should not have occurred during the waiting period.

Persons aged 1 to 70 years old may be insured.
