

BDO supports DOLE's Labor Day job, livelihood fair

As part of BDO's corporate social responsibility thrust, BDO Remit team and Human Resources Group joined the 2012 Labor Day Job and Livelihood Fair "Pagtutulungan. Pagbabago. Disenteng Trabaho" organized by the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) on May 1, 2012 at the Manila World Trade Center in Pasay City.

The Human Resources Group was able to schedule almost 100 applicants for initial examinations. The BDO Remit team, on the other hand, took advantage of the event to promote BDO Kabayan Savings Accounts to prospective clients.

The labor department said the main goal of the event is to provide jobseekers, new graduates, and returning and displaced OFWs with decent and productive employment.

President Benigno Aquino III graced the event by touring around the booths of government agencies and participating companies. Joining him were Labor and Employment Secretary Rosalinda Dimapilis-Baldoz and Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) Director General Emmanuel Villanueva.

DOLE NCR Regional Director Atty. Allan M. Macaraya confirmed the attendance of almost 4,000 applicants during the daylong activity, and expressed his gratitude for the staunch support and active participation to the companies who joined the event.

Ribbon-cutting ceremony From left: DOLE Undersecretary Danilo Cruz, DOLE Secretary Rosalinda Dimapilis-Baldoz, Pasay Rep. Imelda Calixto-Rubiano and BDO Remit Event Officer Leah Arellano

A representative from BDO Remit educates interested clients about the BDO Kabayan Savings Account.