

BDO honors seafarers; joins Philippine Seafarers' Congress

As part of efforts to recognize the role of Filipino seafarers in the Philippine maritime industry, BDO recently joined the 6th Philippine Seafarers' Congress held at the Luneta Seafarers Welfare Foundation (LUSWELF) grounds in T.M. Kalaw Street in Manila. The 6th Philippine Seafarers' Congress is part of the Annual National Maritime week.

BDO set up a booth at the grounds last September 26 to 28, 2016 in order to assist seafarers in opening BDO Kabayan Savings Accounts and attend to their remittance queries with the assistance of BDO Luneta- T.M. Kalaw branch representatives.

BDO has been an active sponsor of the Annual National Maritime week celebrations for six consecutive years through non-government organization LUSWELF, which gives manning agencies a venue to promote job vacancies in the maritime industry in its seafarers' center in Manila. LUSWELF has given BDO access to various manning agencies allowing the bank to offer its allotment/remittance services for the seafarers hired by the said agencies.

BDO booth setup at the 6th Philippine Seafarers' Congress, Luswelf Grounds, T.M. Kalaw , Manila

(3rd from left) BDO Remittance Origination Shipping AVP & Sales Officer Malou Donato together with BDO Luneta – TM Kalaw branch representatives

(From left) BDO Remittance representatives Julius Esdicul & Donne Lozano during a product talk at the seafarers' event

BDO Remittance representative Mar Villafranca promoting on stage BDO Remit flagship product - BDO Kabayan Savings Account

BDO Remittance team manning the booth & promoting BDO Kabayan Savings Account at the 6th Philippine Seafarers' Congress